

Pen-Cae'r-Lan Farm, Seven Sisters,
Neath

Landscape Masterplan

L100

Key

Site boundary

Existing trees to be retained - RPA shown as pink dashed line

Existing trees to be removed - 4no. Category C trees to be removed to accommodate solar arrays, 4no. surveyed as Category U

Existing scrub vegetation to be retained

Existing waterways

Existing pylons with overhead cables shown as dashed white lines

Existing public rights of way

Proposed solar arrays

Proposed substation

Proposed access track

Proposed access gates

Proposed fence

Landscape and Ecology proposals

Proposed tree planting
Indicative species:
Alnus glutinosa
Crataegus monogyna
Quercus robur
Salix caprea

Proposed scrub planting
Indicative planting species:
Crataegus monogyna
Prunus spinosa
Ulex eutopeaus
Molinia caerulea
Salix caprea
Sorbus aucuparia
Viburnum opulus

Grass beneath the panels to be retained and manage to naturally regenerate in areas with little disturbance during construction. In areas where there is more trafficking or excavations, Emorsgate EG1 to be seeded or a locally supplied mix

Proposed Tree mounted bat box

Proposed Tree mounted bird box

Proposed Habitat piles

Proposed Otter holt

Scale 1:2000@A1

TC23191_LEMP.100v2.dwg

24 January 2025